Friday, April 16, 2010
5:30 p.m.

Fantastic Silent Auction Items!

Premium hotel packages. Sports memorabilia.
Authentic American Indian jewelry, arts, and crafts. Specialty items.

Proceeds from this event will benefit the Southwestern Institute for the Education of Native Americans, a 501(c)(3) organization whose mission is to provide the resources necessary for Native American students to get the best education they can in a culturally rich environment that promotes health and well-being.

Scheduled to Appear

Kevin Russell, Master of Ceremonies

Born and raised on the Navajo Reservation, Kevin Russell attended Arizona State University where he was President of the American Indian Science and Engineering Society (AISES) and funded the Native American Wellness Society. With a bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering, Kevin worked for several engineering firms before rediscovering his passion for working with the American Indian community. Kevin currently works in the 2010 U.S. Census American Indian and Alaskan Native outreach program.

The Yellowhouse Dancers

The Yellowhouse Dancers include some well-known singers and dancers that travel all around Indian country performing at powwows and other cultural events. This group is led by Lane Jensen who placed sixth in the 2010 World Hoop Dancing Championships at the Heard Museum. His 10-year-old son, Tyrese, earned the title of Youth World Hoop Dancing Champion!

Estun-Bah

Experience the sounds of the Southwest. With the gentleness of the Apache cane, Estun-Bah will take you on an endless journey of love songs and enchanting musical landscapes. The soft blend of the Native American flute with the elegant touch of the acoustic guitar will soothe the mind and enrich the soul. Estun-Bah is the premier Native sound of the Southwest. Soar with the eagles. Listen to the heartbeat of Mother Earth. Feel the first beams of the sunrise.
